Re: United States v. Rashien Jackson
21 Cr. 280 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

I am the attorney for Rashien Jackson, who is scheduled for sentencing on June 28, 2023. I respectfully request that sentencing be adjourned thirty days to a date in late July 2023. The Government consents to this request.

Reduced to essentials, the defense requires additional time to prepare and file its sentencing submission. We did not receive the first draft of the PSR in this matter until June 1, 2023, and thereafter required time to share and review it with the client. After doing so, I drafted and then reviewed with my client earlier this week a proposed sentencing submission, but revisions are necessary, as are discussions with the Government on certain legal and factual issues relating to sentencing.

I ask for thirty days, as opposed to a shorter adjournment because I will be out of the country on vacation from July 1 through July 12, 2023.

This is Mr. Jackson's second and final request for an adjournment of sentence.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott B. Tulman
